

Happy TRIUMPHANT THURSDAY My Sisters In Christ!

(PLEASE FORGIVE ME FOR THE LENGTH OF My COMMUNICATION)

3-19-2020

During my time of seeking the Lord this morning, although I was overwhelming thankful & totally grateful for the blessing of things being as well as they are & being an able bodied recipient of the new mercies of God granted with this day, I found myself a little weepy & filled with questions. God faithfully met me with great revelation, wisdom, peace & understanding as HE SPOKE TO ME BY THE WAY!

And they said one to another; Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures? Luke 24:32

I smile even now as I share this message with you! I pray that each of you are able to find your personal take away & apply it for God's Glory to be revealed in your life. Whereas I am saying "I, my or me" feel free to interject yourself.

"Fret not Beloved! This season is a GATEWAY!...For the MIRACULOUS! Trust me more than you want the answers. Allow me to feed your need to sustain & strengthen your spirit."

I'm encouraged today by Matthew 23:11 "But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant."

God has positioned me for greater growth in servitude. Although things may appear to be falling apart, I'm encouraged to know according to God's plan they're actually falling into place. This place that I'm in right now is all a part of the process & plan to prepare & prosper me BUT IT'S NOT MY END...I'm here for REVELATION! I'm NOT SETTling HERE...I'm seeking & gleaning because there's MORE COMING! I don't know how it's coming, but I'm assured that GREATER IS COMING! It doesn't mean that I don't value or appreciate the place, people or current path that I'm on, but it merely means that I DON'T HAVE TO FORCE IT...it's COMING!

Because I have GREATNESS within me, it's on my life, so it cost me MORE preparation & discipline... I can't stop or quit just because opposition shows up, or just because pain & struggles show up! Yes, this is where God has me right now but it's NOT MY END! My assignment is challenging me to redefine my limitations & how I proactively prepare to respond to adversity. There's an opening for me to know & understand in this season that while everyone that says sister, brother or pastor may truly like or love me, but not be willing to submit to true sonship or a covenant relationship ...if it's just not in their heart to do so.

So, in this season, I'm not only being prepared for my current assignment or audience but for what's to come!

I'm being prepared to differentiate between what could or would be considered as warfare, in this season & what could or would be divine training!

Where I am & what I'm currently experiencing is good Training Ground for who & where I'm actually called to!

I've got to manage in this season of stewardship so I'm fully prepared for my season of ownership! David's audience as a shepherd was just training for his royal subjects that he'd rule as king. I, like David can't afford to forfeit my future because of situations that bring about frustration in the present moment.

Lord help me not to be disgruntled but disciplined in my mind & how I respond & handle the assignment, the challenges & hardships that come along with it!

I hear The Lord even now speaking to me loud & clear: "Put your sword up David...of course you could kill Saul right now, but now is not the time to take him out, nor is this the way to do it! Don't trade glorifying ME for gratifying yourself. I'm a God of order, discipline yourself & stay with my plan."
Can I preach up in here today?!!!

Thankfully God already informed me that He's teaching me how to "Master the Affects" of pain, rejection, opposition & rebellion! So, I won't smote the rock like Moses upon being frustrated by the people! Even though it may appear that the people don't respect or receive me...I'm reminded that God's plan is so much BIGGER than that! Maybe they can't appreciate or receive all of who God's called me to be & can only take a small part right now but that doesn't mean that I have to allow the parts of me that they're rejecting or not ready for to die! I must exercise & energize in my current assignment to be equipped & prepared for the journey ahead...The Future Assignment!

No I don't have to allow the current environment or circumstances to discourage, frustrate, anger or upset me or cause me to wanna quit... take my ball & go home because there's something in all of this SPECIFICALLY DESIGNED & DIVINELY ORCHESTRATED to prepare me for what's to come! I refuse to lose the revelation because they're blind or not able to manage it. I've got to MAXIMIZE THIS SEASON WITH EVERYTHING I'VE GOT! And if they don't see it, it's because God is hiding it in plain view to protect it, just like Moses' identity among the Egyptians! This is not a season to mishandle the assignment or be mishandled.

Just because they don't see it...I WON'T STOP SERVING! NO MATTER WHAT OTHERS ARE OR AREN'T DOING or how discouraging it may or may not be, it's absolutely imperative that I SERVE to get to where God is leading me! I've got to finish here before I can get there! It's like a staircase of steps that lead us up, out & into our next level. My next assignment depends on it!

My Next Level is here, not knocking on the door or on the way...IT'S HERE RIGHT NOW & it's here to stretch & strengthen me to be positioned to receive the benefits of learning during this time of what appears to be uncharted territory.

I have been commissioned to pray, intercede, teach, encourage & lead others to pray in this season where many are waxing cold, walking away, being led astray by rebellion & resisting instruction. At this level I'm choosing to create rather than complain. I need just a few blood bought believers to join me today to commit to CREATING & NOT COMPLAINING!

There are many challenges presented within this season that require learning to think differently, introducing new terms & a broader vocabulary to gain proficiency & understanding of what's going on & how to respond in ways to effectively strategize for the advancement of God's Kingdom. There's so much going on in the church right now & the world at large & I'm fully persuaded that the only way in or out of any of this successfully is through Christ & the understanding that we can only get from God, because many times, I just don't know what to think or which way to go!

Some of you may be like myself, experiencing many "I don't know moments?!" Because again, we're dealing with what we haven't ever dealt with, but I'm encouraged through THE HOLY GHOST to recall how God fed the Israelites "Manna" (translated as "what is it") during their time in the wilderness. So, God feeds them on the way with a question to sustain them. Hmm...the question keeps feeding them to sustain them & it becomes a GATEWAY to the MIRACULOUS.

So, I'm encouraged to know that my "I don't know moments" are POWERFUL to God for the working of my faith, setting the stage for THE MIRACULOUS! Just like God asked Adam..."where art thou?" & Ezekiel..."can these dry bones live again?"

I see a GATEWAY for the MIRACULOUS! God is using the current chaos, confusion & crisis to CREATE opportunities & solutions for HIS PEOPLE that are willing to stay the course!

I've got to be willing to dominate the world within me before I can dominate the world around me!

Thanks for prayerfully & lovingly listening & reading my lengthy "testamessage!" LOL!
You're an encouragement to me!
